DELAWARE COUNTY, SS:

LETTERS TESTAMENTARY

By the tenor of these presents, I George E. Hill, Register for the Probate of Wills and The Granting Letters of Administration in and for said County, unto all men send GREETING:

WHEREAS, Mary C. Burchinal, late of the Township of Aston, in the said County, deceased had while she lived and at the time of her death, divers goods, and chattles, rights, and credits, in sundry places within the said County, by reason whereof and by the laws and customs of the said Commonwealth, the approbation and insinuation of the last will and testament of the said Mary C. Burchinal and the commission of Administration of all the singular her goods and chattles, rights and credits, and also auditing the accounts, calculations and reckonings of said administration, and the final discharge and dismissal therefrom unto the Register aforesaid do belong:

NOW KNOW YE, that on the 5th day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five at Media in the County aforesaid, before me the Register, aforesaid, duly appointed, commissioned and constituted, was proved, approved and insinuated the last will and testament of the said Mary C. Burchinal, deceased, a true copy whereof is to these presents annexed, and the administration of all the singular the goods and chattles and credits of the said deceased, by her last will and testament in any way or manner affected, was granted unto Annia Dunster, Executrix in the said testament named and appointed she having been first duly Affirmed well and truly to administer the goods and chattles, rights, and credits, of the said deceased, according to law, and also diligently and faithfully to regard, as well and truly to comply with provisions of the law relating to Collateral Inheritances.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have caused the seal of the Register's Office to be hereunto affixed, at Media, the 5th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (1935).
